17. The annual general meeting shall be held at such time and place as the Council shall appoint.
18. All meetings other than the annual general meetings shall be called general meetings.

19. The Council may, whenever they think fit, convene a general meeting, and a general meeting shall also be convened on such requisition and in such manner as is provided by the Acts. If at any time there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient members of the Council capable of acting to form a quorum, any such member of the Council or any two Guarantor Members may convene a general meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings may be convened by the Council.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

20. Subject to the provisions of the Acts, general meetings shall be called by at least fourteen clear days' notice. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given, and shall specify the place, the day and the hour of the meeting and in the case of special business, the general nature of that business and shall be given in manner hereinafter mentioned or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the Trust in general meeting, to such persons as are, under the Articles of the Trust, entitled to receive such notice from the Trust PROVIDED THAT a meeting of the Trust shall, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in this article be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed by a majority in number of the Guarantor Members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together representing not less than ninety per cent of the total voting rights at that meeting of the Guarantor Members
21. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

22. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at a general meeting, and also all that is transacted at an annual general meeting, with the exception of the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets, and the reports of the Council and Auditors, the election of members of the Council in the place of those retiring and the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of, the Auditors.
23. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of Guarantor Members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business; save as herein otherwise provided, five Guarantor Members present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum or, if fewer, all the Guarantor Members of the Trust.
24. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Guarantor Members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day and at such other time and place as the Council may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the Guarantor Members present shall be a quorum.

25. The President, or failing him, the chairman of the Trust shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the Trust or if neither of them is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act, the Guarantor Members shall elect one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
26. The chairman of the meeting may, with the consent of the meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
27. At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded (a) by the chairman of the meeting or (b) by at least two Guarantor Members present in person or by proxy having the right to vote or (c) by any Guarantor Member or Guarantor Members present in person or by proxy and representing no less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the Guarantor Members having the right to vote at the meeting. Unless a poll be so demanded a declaration by the chairman that resolution has on a show of hands been carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of proceedings of the Trust shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
28. If a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman of the meeting directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded.
29. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded, shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.
30. A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment, shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting directs, and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll.
31. If at any general meeting any votes shall be counted which ought not to have been counted, or might have been rejected, the error shall not vitiate the result of the voting unless it be pointed out at the same meeting, and not in that case unless it shall, in the opinion of the chairman of the meeting, be of sufficient magnitude to vitiate the result of the voting.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

32. Subject to any rights or restrictions attached to their membership or class of membership, every Guarantor Member shall have one vote.
33. On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy. On a show of hands only those Guarantor Members present in person may vote, save that the duly authorised representative of a corporation present in person may vote on behalf of that corporation. In the case of joint Guarantor Members where the Guarantor Members are together entitled to one vote, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote in person or by proxy shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint Guarantor Members. Seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names of the joint Guarantor Members are recorded in the Membership records.
34. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing, or, if the appointer is a corporation, either under seal or under the hands of an officer or attorney duly authorised. A proxy must be a Guarantor Member of the Trust or a member of the Council.
35. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority shall be deposited at the registered office of the Trust or at such other place within the United Kingdom as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting, not less than forty eight hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or, in the case of a poll, not less than twenty four hours before the time appointed for the taking of a poll and in default the instrument of a proxy shall to be treated as valid.
